

COMPLIANCE REPORT WITH THE FINAL CORPORATE GOVERNANCE RULES OF THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE (NYSE) AS APPROVED BY THE SECURITIES & EXCHANGE COMMISSION ON NOVEMBER 4, 2003 AS MODIFIED ON NOVEMBER 3, 2004 AND CODIFIED IN SECTION 303A OF THE NYSE LISTED COMPANY MANUAL

The New York Stock Exchange's board of directors approved significant changes in its listing standards in 2002, aimed at restoring investor confidence by strengthening corporate governance practices. Companies listed on the NYSE must comply with these Corporate Governance standards which are codified in Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Companies Manual. Though some of the requirements are not applicable, the company presently complies with all the practices.

Listed companies that are foreign private issuers (as such term is defined in Rule 3b-4 of the Securities Exchange Act, 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")) are permitted to follow their home country practices in lieu of the provisions of Section 303A, except that such companies are required to comply with the requirements of Sections 303A.06, 303A.11 and 303A.12(b) and (c).

A compliance report on the Corporate Governance Standards as codified in Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual as of March 31, 2009 is presented below:

1. Listed companies must have a majority of independent directors (303A.01)

The Board of our Company comprises of six Independent Non Executive Directors out of a total strength of seven directors as on March 31, 2009.

2 (a). No director qualifies as "independent" unless the board of directors affirmatively determines that the director has no material relationship with the listed company (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the company). Companies must identify which directors are independent and disclose the basis for that determination. (303A.02(a))

Six directors on the board are independent directors and satisfy the category of 'independent directors' as per this clause.

2(b) In addition, a Director is not independent if-

i) The director is or has been within the last three years, an employee of the listed company or an immediate family member is, or has been within the last three years, an executive officer, of the listed company. (303A.02(b)(i))

None of our existing independent directors or their family members has held the office as an executive officer in the Company within the last three years.

ii) The director has received or has an immediate member who has received, during any 12 months period within the last three years, more than $120,000 in direct compensation from the listed company, other than director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided such compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service) (303A.02(b)(ii))

None of our independent directors receive any other direct compensation apart from their directorship and committee fees, pension, or any form of deferred compensation or have ever received any such amounts at any point of time.

iii) A) The director is a current partner or employee of a firm that is the Company's internal or external auditor; B) The director has an immediately family member who is a current partner of such a firm; C) The director has an immediate family member who is a current employee of such a firm and personally works on the listed company's audit or; D) The director or an immediately family member was within the last three years a partner or employee of such a firm and personally worked on the Listed Company's audit within that time. (303A.029(b)(iii))

None of our independent directors or their immediate family members have ever been affiliated or employed in any capacity by a present or former internal or external auditor of the company at any point of time and have ever participated in the firm's audit or assurance of tax compliance practice.

iv) The director or an immediate family member, is or has been within the last three years, employed as an executive officer of another company where any of the listed company's present executive officers at the same time serves or served on that Company's Compensation Committee (303A.02(b)(iv))

None of our independent directors or their immediate family members is or has been within the last three years, employed as executive officers of another company where any of the company's present executive officers at the same time serves or served on that company's compensation committee.

v) The director is a current employee, or an immediate family member is a current executive officer, of a company that has made payments to, or received payments from, the Listed company for property or services in an amount, which, in any of the last three fiscal years, exceeds the greater of $1 Mn or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues. (303A.02(b)(v))

None of the independent Directors, nor any of their immediate family member is a current executive officer, has not made payments to, or received from, the Company for property or services in an amount, which, in any of the last three fiscal years, exceeds the greater of $1 Mn or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues.

3. To empower non-management directors to serve as a more effective check on management, the non-management directors of each Listed company must meet at regularly scheduled executive sessions without management. (303A.03)

Non-management directors regularly meet at scheduled executive sessions without management prior to every Board meeting held during the year. The executive sessions were all presided by Mr. N Vaghul, our lead independent director.

4 (a) Listed companies must have a nominating/corporate governance committee composed entirely of independent directors. (303A.04(a))

4 (b) The nominating/corporate governance committee must have a written charter that addresses: (303A.04(b)(i) & (ii))

- i. the committee's purpose and responsibilities – which, at minimum, must be to: identify individuals qualified to become board members, consistent with criteria approved by the board, and to select, or to recommend that the board select, the director nominees for the next annual meeting of shareholders; develop and recommend to the board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the corporation; and oversee the evaluation of the board and management; and
- ii. an annual performance evaluation of the committee
