

COMPLIANCE REPORT WITH THE FINAL CORPORATE GOVERNANCE RULES OF THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE (NYSE) AS APPROVED BY THE SECURITIES & EXCHANGE COMMISSION ON NOVEMBER 4, 2003 AS MODIFIED ON NOVEMBER 3, 2004, AUGUST 26, 2009, NOVEMBER 25, 2009 AND JANUARY 11, 2013 AND CODIFIED IN SECTION 303A OF THE NYSE LISTED COMPANY MANUAL FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2013

The New York Stock Exchange's board of directors approved significant changes in its listing standards in 2002, aimed at restoring investor confidence by strengthening corporate governance practices. Companies listed on the NYSE must comply with these Corporate Governance standards which are codified in Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Companies Manual. Though some of the requirements are not applicable, the company's governance policies and practices are generally in compliance with the practices applicable to domestic companies though some of the practices may be different from domestic company's practices as explained in Para 303A.11.

Listed companies that are foreign private issuers (as such term is defined in Rule 3b-4 of the Securities Exchange Act, 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") are permitted to follow their home country practices in lieu of the provisions of Section 303A, except that such companies are required to comply with the requirements of Sections 303A.06, 303A.11 and 303A.12 (b) and (c).

A compliance report on the Corporate Governance Standards as codified in Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual as of March 31, 2013 is presented below:

1. Listed companies must have a majority of independent directors (303A.01)

The Board of our Company comprises of ten Independent Non Executive Directors out of a total strength of 13 directors as on March 31, 2013.

2 (a). No director qualifies as "independent" unless the board of directors affirmatively determines that the director has no material relationship with the listed company (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the company). (303A.02(a))

Ten directors on the board are independent directors and satisfy the category of 'independent directors' as per this clause.

2(b) In addition, a Director is not independent if-

i) The director is or has been within the last three years, an employee of the listed company or an immediate family member is, or has been within the last three years, an executive officer, of the listed company. (303A.02(b)(i))

None of our existing independent directors or their immediate family members has held the office as an executive officer in the Company within the last three years.

ii) The director has received or has an family immediate member who has received, during any 12 months period within the last three years, more than $120,000 in direct compensation from the listed company, other than director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided such compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service) (303A.02(b)(ii))

None of our independent directors receive any other direct compensation apart from their directorship and committee fees, pension, or any form of deferred compensation or have ever received any such amounts at any point of time.

iii) A) The director is a current partner or employee of a firm that is the listed Company's internal or external auditor; B) The director has an immediately family member who is a current partner of such a firm; C) The director has an immediate family member who is a current employee of such a firm and personally works on the listed company's audit or; D) The director or an immediately family member was within the last three years a partner or employee of such a firm and personally worked on the Listed Company's audit within that time. (303A.02(b)(iii)(A))

None of our independent directors or their immediate family members have ever been affiliated or employed in any of these capacities by a present or former internal or external auditor of the company at any point of time and have never participated in the firm's audit or assurance of tax compliance practice.

iv) The director or an immediate family member, is or has been within the last three years, employed as an executive officer of another company where any of the listed company's present executive officers at the same time serves or served on that Company's Compensation Committee (303A.02(b)(iv))

None of our independent directors or their immediate family members is or has been within the last three years, employed as executive officers of another company where any of the company's present executive officers at the same time serves or served on that company's compensation committee.

v) The director is a current employee, or an immediate family member is a current executive officer, of a company that has made payments to, or received payments from, the Listed company for property or services in an amount, which, in any of the last three fiscal years, exceeds the greater of $1 Mn or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues. (303A.02(b)(v))

None of the independent Directors, nor any of their immediate family member is a current executive officer, has not made payments to, or received from, the Company for property or services in an amount, which, in any of the last three fiscal years, exceeds the greater of $1 Mn or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues.

3. To empower non-management directors to serve as a more effective check on management, the non-management directors of each Listed company must meet at regularly scheduled executive sessions without management. (303A.03)

Non-management directors regularly meet at scheduled executive sessions without management during every Board meeting held during the year. The executive sessions were all presided by Mr. N Vaghul, our lead independent director.

4 (a) Listed companies must have a nominating/corporate governance committee composed entirely of independent directors. (303A.04(a))

4 (b) The nominating/corporate governance committee must have a written charter that addresses: (303A.04(b)(i) & (ii))

- i. the committee's purpose and responsibilities – which, at minimum, must be to: identify individuals qualified to become board members, consistent with criteria approved by the board, and to select, or to recommend that the board select, the director nominees for the next annual meeting of shareholders; develop and recommend to the board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the corporation; and oversee the evaluation of the board and management; and
- ii. an annual performance evaluation of the committee

Our Audit Committee has adopted a written Code of Ethics, as defined in Item 406 of Regulation S-K, applicable to our principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer and all officers working in our finance, accounting, treasury, internal audit, tax, legal, purchase, financial analyst, investor relations functions, disclosure committee members, and senior management, as well as members of the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors. Our Code of Ethics is available under the investors section on our website at www.wipro.com/investors. We will post any amendments to, or waivers from, our Code of Ethics at that location on our website.

We have also adopted an updated Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, applicable to all officers, directors and employees. Our updated Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is available under the investors section on our website at www.wipro.com/investors.

11. Listed foreign private issuers must disclose any significant ways in which their corporate governance practices differ from those followed by domestic companies under NYSE listing standards. (303A.11)

Although the Company's required home country standards on corporate governance may differ from the NYSE listing standards, the Company's actual corporate governance policies and practices are in compliance with the NYSE listing standards applicable to domestic companies.

Because our securities are listed on a national securities exchange, we are required to provide a concise summary of any significant ways in which our corporate governance practices differ from those followed by domestic companies under the listing standards of that exchange. Being a foreign private issuer, we are permitted to follow home country practice in lieu of the provisions of this Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual, except that we are required to comply with the requirements of Sections 303A.06, 303A.11 and 303A.12(b) and (c) thereof. With regard to Section 303A.11, although the Company's required home country standards on corporate governance may differ from the NYSE listing standards, the Company's actual corporate governance policies and practices are generally in compliance with the NYSE listing standards applicable to domestic companies. Some of the key differences between the requirements in India and those as per NYSE Listing requirements are as follows:

- a. Listing Agreement with Indian stock exchanges require 50% of the Board of Directors to be independent directors in the case of executive Chairman of the Board (it is 33.33% in other cases) while NYSE listing requirements specify that a majority of the Board to consist of independent directors.
- b. Listing Agreement with Indian stock exchanges requires that a majority of the members of the Audit Committee be independent directors while the NYSE Listing specifies that all the members of the Audit Committee must be independent directors.
- c. The requirement for a Nomination Committee and Compensation Committee are not compulsory as per Listing Agreements with Indian stock exchanges. These are mandatory requirements as per NYSE Listing requirements. A Shareholders Grievance committee is mandatory under Listing Agreements with stock exchanges in India and is not a requirement under NYSE Listing requirements.
- d. Criteria for determining directors to be independent also differ between the two countries Listing requirements.
- e. Certain disclosure requirements differ as per the norms of listing agreements with Indian Stock Exchanges and NYSE corporate governance requirements.

The other key practices followed in the home country as per home country laws are provided as part of our Annual Report.

12. Certification requirements

- (a) Each listed company CEO must certify to the NYSE each year that he or she is not aware of any violation by the company of NYSE corporate governance listing standards, qualifying the certification to the extent necessary (303A.12(a))

The Company complies with this requirement and the certificate from our CEO is reproduced at the end of this report.

- (b) Each listed company CEO must promptly notify the NYSE in writing after any executive officer of the listed company becomes aware of any non-compliance with any applicable provisions of this Section 303A.

This requirement has been incorporated into the company's policies and procedures and would trigger such a notification in the event any executive officer becomes aware of non-compliance with the applicable provisions of Section 303A. Through the date hereof, no event has occurred in the Company that would necessitate any notification to the NYSE pursuant to this requirement.

(c) Each listed company must submit an executed Written Affirmation annually to the NYSE. In addition, each listed company must submit an interim Written Affirmation as and when required by the interim Written Affirmation form specified by the NYSE. (303A.12(c))

The Annual Written Affirmation will be submitted on or before June 30, 2013.

13. Issue of a public reprimand letter to any listed company that violates a NYSE listing standard. (303A.13)

The Company has complied with the requirements of NYSE Corporate Governance standards and no public reprimand letter was received by the Company.

ANNUAL CERTIFICATION BY CEO PURSUANT TO SECTION 303A.12(a) OF THE OF NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE (NYSE) LISTED COMPANY MANUAL

As the Chief Executive Officer of Wipro Limited and as required by Section 303A.12(a) of the New York Stock Exchange Listed Company Manual, I hereby certify that as of the date hereof, I am not aware of any violation by the Company of NYSE's Corporate Governance Listing Standards, other than has been notified to the Exchange pursuant to Section 303A.12(b) and disclosed as an attachment hereto, if applicable.
